June Elvidge, Montagu Love and Arthur Ashley-all three-are starred in "The Guardian," the newest World-Picture Brady-Made which will be the attraction on Monday and Tuesday at the Auditorium theatre. With these famous and brilliant stars heading the cast, with a superlative production and with a clever and enter-taining story "The Guardian" forms a film attraction of really superior merit. All film fans who look for the best in screen entertainment are urged to see this production. All will enjoy how high class vaudeville with its snow high class valueville with its fine picture programme, and offer for your approval Billy Newkirk and the Homer Sisters, in a new collection of songs and dances. These clever people have scored a big hit in all the biggest theatres in the larger cities. Fuller and Meade, two very clever boys, who have a fine line of come-dy, will keep you in good humor. They also know how to sing songs as they should be sung. A very fine Christia Comedy completes a bill that is sure to please everyone.

BREED THEATRE.

George Loane Tucker's Screen Ver-"The Manx-Man." Feature For Today and Tuesday-Shows at 2.30, 6.30 and 8.30 p. m.

Thackeray called his greatest story.

Vanity Für," a novel without a hero" 'The Manx-Man," George Loane Tucker's alm version of Hall Caine's greatest story, which will be shown at the Breed theatre today and Tuesday may well be called a gripping, human tale without a villain. This does an that there is any lack of that Interest that springs from contrasting character, but merely that the play is so truly human that it does not portray any one being so altogether bad that the inner light has never a chance to shine. "The Manx-Man" is said to be a picture that is so far ahead of the usual run of films that they are lost in the dust, and its run of a month at the Criterion theatre made a veritable sensation in New York in the realms of the screen drama. nterest that springs from contrasting

The last chapter of "The Fatal Ring" will also be shown and the latest war news in the Hearst-Pathe Weekly completes the bill. Owing to the length of this programme the first ev-ening performance will start promptly at 5.30.

DAVIS THEATRE

Three Keith Standard Vaudeville Acts and Mae Marsh in Sunshine Alley, Six-Part Photo Feature, Today, Tuesday and Wednesday.

For the first half of this week the Davis will offer an excellent pro-gramme of Keith standard vaudeville gramme of Keith standard vaudeville acts and super feature plays. The headline attraction is Chas. F. Seamon, astoundingly tall and thin, universally known as one "Narrow Felior." As a matter of fact, no title could be more descriptive, for Seamon is by all odds the thinnest and mosf ethereal personage any one could conceive of. As one reviewer wrote recently, a bottle of olives would make him look like a knotted thread. To add to his grotesque appearance, Seahim look like a knotted thread. To add to his grotesque appearance, Sea-mon dresses like a horse with inter-ferers on the knees. Charlie extracts music from a variety of unfamiliar form. music from a variety of unfamiliar instruments. A running fire of comsdy talk accompanied by a number of changes makes his freak music and bandy legs shries of mirth. Another sig time act is The Three Herbert Sisters, a trio of jolly English girls who present a delightful singing and fancing specialty and the third act, hays and Neal, offer a comedy skit with songs, entitled The Soap Salesman. The feature picture is Mae Sarsh in Sunshine Alley. a quaint play with a quaint actress in six interesting acts. Methodist Church Brighten Afternoon for Sheltering Arms Household -Shore Leave for John Fields-Children Earn Pocket Money Husk-

Rev. J. H. Newland, pastor of Trinlty Methodist Episcopal chuhch, gave a most fitting address Sunday afternoon at the Sheltering Arms. The text chosen was, When ye pray say, Our Father. I am glad that I can sometimes think in simple ways about God, he said, as walking with a plow-God, he said, as waiting with a plow-boy, as wandering with us in the woods, as being with our dear, sick ones, close to the needy, smoothing the pillow of the weary. God is like our earthly father because He pro-vides and makes everything beautiful for us. God sweetens the hard things. for us. God sweetens the hard things. He is like our earthly father in that He puts joy into everything in this world. He puts laughter into the world, it is everywhere in the elements about us. God wants good feeling and cheer among His children. He is like our earthly father in His patient persistance. He keeps calling when we wander away. We are so slow in grasping opportunities, we are when we wander away. We are so slow in grasping opportunities, we are siow when called to great endeavor, God keeps calling again and again, because He is our Father. He calls to better things. Sometimes I fancy I hear God say to those who are overworking, to a bot who has a hard time, "Be patient, it will be easier by and by!" Sometimes He says, "You go to sleep, stop worrying! I will take care of the world." In loving care, with tenderness unspeakable, God leads us on. God owns His children and their work. He writes a man's leads us on. God owns His children and their work. He writes a man's good character on his face. God as our Father helps us over the hard places. When we do good work for Him we have His approval. He takes hold when we let go, and helps with His own strength for the end of the task. Christ says, "Our Father." keeping us together in a close family relation. Around His throne He will gather us leave said When we have ther us. Jesus said, When ye pray say, Our Father.

Mrs. William Crowe, Jr., was director of the girls' choir and played the accompaniments. The service opened with the hymn, When Peace Like a Pivar The authority for Today. River. The anthems, Just For Today, and Sun of My Soul Thou Savior Dear, were given with rare sweetness of ex-
